FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 1972

A faculty reception at 9:15 a.m., in the State Dining Room, Ochre Court, will open Father-Daughter Weekend, Saturday, October 28, at Salve Regina College, Newport, R. I. The two day event, held for the eleventh time this year, will also include mini-classes, luncheon, dinner and dance, special tours of "Ochre Court" and "Wakehurst," a theatre arts production and Glee Club Concert.

The latter, Eugene Ionesco's "Bald Soprano," under the direction of Miss Joan David, and the Glee Club performance, under the direction of Glenn N. Giuttari, will be presented in the newly re-vamped Creative Arts Center, on Lawrence Avenue.

"Originally, the plan was to utilize the Great Hall at 'Ochre Court,'" said Judge Antonio S. Almeida, president of the Salve Regina Fathers' Council, who annually sponsor the weekend. "However, as the students and faculty in Creative Arts have just finished refurbishing their building, they want the fathers to be able to see and enjoy it. For this reason we changed the plans."

Following the early morning reception, mini-classes will be held at O'Hare Academic Center. Designed to give the fathers a birds-eye view of some of the courses their daughters attend, the classes are scheduled in twenty-minute intervals, between 10:20 and 11:15 a.m.

A Tour of Ochre Court, designed primarily for Freshman fathers, will be conducted by Sister Mary Eloise Tobin, R.S.M. and Sister Mary Jean Tobin, R.S.M., in the same time segment.

The mini-class schedule will include:-

Chemistry - "Tour of the Chemistry Laboratory" - Sister Mary Callista Fontaine, R.S.M., Associate Professor

Language Laboratory - "You Too Can Learn A Language" - Mrs. Elaine Mayer, Language Lab Technician

Nursing - "Nursing In The Future" - Mrs. Ann Tschirch, Instructor

Nursing - "Cardio-pulmonary Resuscitation" - Miss Lorraine Pikor, Instructor and Mrs. Jane Stein, Instructor
